

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, June 16 1703

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 16.

Riga, May 31.

On the 12th of this Month Schansterny surrendered, the Garrison consisting of 700 Men, march'd out of it with Colours flying and other usual Marks of Honour, and was conducted to Wymburg. The Czar of Muscovy and Prince Ferdinand of Courland were present at this Siege. The Enemy is at present posted within 2 Leagues of Nerva. Some of the Muscovites have appear'd about Dornpat, the Inhabitants of which Place are very apprehensive they shall shortly be besieg'd.

Hamburg, June 12. They write from Warsaw, that not far from Plokko 3000 Poles and Walachians have fallen upon the Swedes Baggage, kill'd 40 Men, and carry'd off 60 Horses. Letters from Nerva of the 28th of May tell us, that the Swedish Lieutenant Collonel Morath, with 200 Horse, has had a Renounter with a Party of Muscovites near Kapurga, of whom he kill'd 80, and drove 200 into a little River, and took a Collonel and some Soldiers Prisoners.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 16.

Elbing, May 29. Some Troops of Lithuanians have fallen unexpectedly into the Swedish Camp, and carry'd off a Booty of 1000 Rixdollars besides Horses.

Danzick, June 6. The Advices from Poland by the way of Coningsberg, about the Siege of Thorn, are various, some say the Swedes have not begun to fire upon it, and have detach'd 7 or 8000 Men to observe Oginski who is advanc'd within 7 Leagues of Thorn; others, that the Siege is carry'd on vigorously; and others again, that the Swedes have broken up from before it. They write from Warsaw, that the Gentleman whom the Cardinal Primate sent with a Letter to the King of Sweden, to pres his Majesty to declare his Sentiments in relation to Peace, is at length return'd with an Answer so different from what the Cardinal expected, that he appears full of Relentment, and very inclinable to alter his Conduct, to espouse the Interest of the King of Poland, and to excite the Republick to wage open War with the Swedes.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 19.

Hamburg, June 15. Our Advices from Marienburg say, that a Body of 14 or 15000 Lithuanians, commanded by Oginski and Prince Wielnowiski, are posted within 2 or 3 Leagues of the Swedes, who have not yet rais'd their Batteries against Thorn. The Bridge of Boats which the Swedes were making over the Vistula at Kockzyrk is finish'd, and General Reenschild with 3000 Men is pass'd over it.

Danzick, June 9. 5 or 6000 Lithuanians led by Oginski are advanc'd towards the Swedes, the rest continue at Graudents between Thorn and this City.

From the Leiden Courant, dated June 20.

Graudents, June 7. Friday next will be kept as a Fast day by the Swedes that lye before Thorn. And they will begin to batter the Town in 4 several Places on the Tuesday after, with 200 Pieces of Cannon. Their Mortars are not yet arriv'd in their Camp. The King of Sweden is there in Person.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 16.

Menz, June 9. All the Forces, (with their Artillery, Ammunition, and Baggage,) that lay in the Lines of Lauterburg, are retir'd into Landau, except 150 Men that are left in the Town of Lauterburg, and 2 Troops of Hussars posted near it, who are commanded by Lieutenant Collonel Loos. A Battalion of the Troops of the Elector of Menz, is likewise got into Landau; so that the Garrison of that Place is augmented to full 5000 Men. All the French, Savoyards, and Italians, are order'd to depart out of it without delay. A French Captain, who was taken Prisoner, will be remov'd to Frankfort; and some French Soldiers, Prisoners likewise, will be sent to Philipsburg.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 19.

Hamburg, June 15. The Emperor's Avocatoria are affix'd on the Gates of the Imperial Post-House, but not on those of our Town-House: The Count van Eck, the Emperor's Minister, who is very Urgent with our Magistrates on this Subject, has been answer'd, That this City will regulate it self in this particular, in the same manner as the Cities of Luebeck and Bremen shall govern themselves.

Liege, June 15. Yesterday, by Order of the Emperor, all Commerce and Correspondence with France and Spain, was forbidden on severe Penalties, after the usual Form. Hereupon the States of this Principality and Magistrates of this City, have resolv'd to send Deputies to Vienna and to the Hague, to remonstrate, that this Principality being inclos'd within the Spanish Territories, it will be difficult to observe this Prohibition; And that besides this Country has been so ravag'd, that if they are absolutely tied up from trafficking with the Subjects of France or Spain, they shall not be able to furnish the Sums they have agreed to raise towards carrying on the War.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 16.

Swo, June 14. The Princess Dowager of Nassau, with the Prince her Son, arriv'd yesterday, and lay here last Night; a Company of Collonel Aderkas Regiment kept Guard before their Lodgings: To day at Noon their Highnesses went from hence for Loo; (the Cannon on the Ramparts firing as they pass'd out of the Gates) from whence the Prince will go to the Army commanded by the Earl of Marlborough: The Prince his Mother will reside at Loo till her Son returns from the Camp.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 19.

Hague, June 18. The Prince of Nassau, Hereditary Stadholder of Friseland, is gone from Loo by the way of Dieren and Nimuegen to the Grand Army on the Maes: His Field Equipage was sent from hence thither to day. The last Advices from Bergen op Zoom, are, that some of our Troops have advanc'd beyond Santvliet to Stabroek, which Fort fir'd hard at them on their Approach; and that some other Troops are mov'd likewise from Lillo higher up towards Antwerp.

Deale,

Deale, June 14. All the outward-bound Ships (except one for New-England) sail'd out of the Downes this Morning to the Westward, under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ships the Essex, Monmouth, Swiftsure, Bridgewater, Shoram, and Spy Brigantine. The Fly Brigantine also sail'd this Morning to attend the Fishery at Southforeland. Here remains Her Majesty's Ship the Centurion, with 3 Merchant Ships from Lisbon for the River. Yesterday Morning came in hither Her Majesty's Ship the Loo from the Fishery off Northforeland.

London, June 15. On Friday Morning last Captain Cock, Captain Cotton, and Captain Fisher, were try'd by a Court-Marshal (consisting of 14 Captains, of which Captain Worrall was President) at the Buoy in the Nore on board the Rumney, for the loss of Her Majesty's Ships the Ludlow, Salisbury, and Swallow Sloop; and after a full Hearing were all honourably Acquitted.

London, June 15. To night arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

The Armies in Brabant continue in their former Camps.

My Lord Raby is arriv'd at Berlin. The King of Prussia has resolv'd to send 7000 Men to the Upper Rhine.

Bergen op Zoom, June 17. Yesterday Morning at 3 a clock the Body of Troops that was encamp'd near this City broke up, and march'd to Stabroek and Putten, within 2 Leagues of Antwerp. The Troops that were encamp'd near Lillo have joyn'd them. The Ships laden with Ammunition that lay before the Canal of Terhollen are gone towards Lillo; which makes it probable that we shall attack the Enemies Lines.

Lille, June 20. There are 28 Battallions besides Horse and Dragoons at Stabroek. The Generals Coehorn and Dedem, went yesterday to Liefkenshoek and are return'd hither.

Middleburg, June 19. To day a Merchant arriv'd here who came last Wednesday from Antwerp, and on Thursday pass'd through the Enemies Army commanded by the Marques de Bedmar 12000 Men strong, and which is extended from within a League of Antwerp to their Lines that run from Liefkenshoek to the Canal of Sas van Ghent. He adds, that Antwerp is but weakly garrison'd. Admiral Calenberg lyes with 7 Men of War in sight of this Island, and Admiral Evertse is to joyn him with 3 Men of War.

The rest we must refer to our next.

THIS Day will be Sold by Auction at the Temple-Change near Temple-Bar (up one pair of Stairs on the left hand as you go into the Coffee-Room) the remaining part of the Catalogue of Italian, French, and other Prints, beginning exactly at 5 in the Afternoon. And tomorrow comes on the Sale of Original and other Paintings, beginning exactly at 10 a clock in the Morning. Catalogues may be had both of the Prints and Paintings at the Exchange Coffee-House in Cornhill over against the Royal Exchange, at Brown's Coffee-House in Bell-Yard near Temple-Bar, at Squire's Coffee-House in Fuller's Rents near Holbourn, at Bird's Coffee-House in the New-Pallace-Yard, Westminster, and at the place of Sale, where the Prints and Paintings may be view'd, constant Attendance being given for that purpose.

A Brace of Grey-hounds stolen from a Gentleman in Hartfordshire on the 10th of this instant June, one a Blue Dog, the other a White Shag Dog; Whoever gives notice where the said Dogs are, that they may be had again, to Mr. Matthew Wilson at the Cock Tavern in York-street, Covent-Garden, shall have a Guinea Reward, or half for one of them.

There is now publish'd,

THE History of the Rebellion and Civil Wars in England, begun in the Year 1641. With the precedent Passages and Actions that contributed therunto. In five Books. Written by the Right Honourable Edward, late Earl of Clarendon, Lord High Chancellor of England. Faithfully Abridg'd with an Alphabetical Index. Sold by John Nutt near Stationers-Hall. Price 5 s.

Whereas the last New Comedy, call'd, Love's Comtrivance, or, Le Medecin Malgre Luy, has the two Letters R. M. to the Dedication, This is to give Notice, that the Name of the Author (who for some Reasons is not willing to be known at present) does not begin with those two Letters. The true Name will shortly be made known.

Proposals for Printing a New Edition of Guillim's Display of Heraldry, with very large Additions, to make it the best Book of this kind hitherto extant in any Language: All Booksellers and others that have receiv'd any Subscriptions, or Gentlemen, &c. that intend to Subscribe, are desir'd to do it with all Expedition, most of the Copy being ready, and many of the Plates cut, and the Book will be finish'd in a short time. Price to Subscribers is a Guinea, half down, the rest on delivery. Those that have their Arms engrav'd on copper with Crest, Motto, &c. (which shall be neatly done) pay a Guinea more. All persons are desir'd to return their Subscriptions to S. and J. Sprint, or John Nicholson, Booksellers in Little-Brittain, London.

Some Memorandums of Matters of Fact, relating to the Original and Preliminaries of a Suit in Doctors-Commons, between Sir Hugh Everard, Bar. Promoter, and John Oswald, Vicar of Much-Waltham in Essex, which are prov'd either from the Depositions of Witnesses, or from Authentical Papers Exhibited in this Cause. With some Reflections upon them. Wherein are some Things of Publick and General Concern to the Clergy of England. By J. O.

A+++ A Doctor in Physick, Cures all the Degrees, and Indispositions, in Venereal Persons; and by a most easie, safe, and expedition Method: He likewise gives his Advice in all Diseases, and Prescribes a Cure. Dr. Harborough (a Graduate Physician) in Great Knight-Riders-Street, near Doctors-Commons.

ADVERTISEMENT.

Medicinal Experiments: Or, A Collection of choice and safe Remedies, for the most part Simple and easily prepared: Very Useful in Families, and fitted for the Service of Country people. By the Honourable R. Boyle Esq; Fellow of the Royal Society. In three parts, containing above five hundred choice Receipts. The Fourth Edition, enlarged with a Supplement. Printed for Sam. Smith at the Prince's Arms, and J. Taylor at the Ship, in St. Paul's Church-yard.

DE Veteribus Graecorum Romanorumque Cyclis. Obiterque de Cyclo Iudaeorum etate Christi, Dissertationes decem, cum Tabulis necessariis, Inscruntur Tabulis Fragmenta Veterum inedita, ad rem Spectantia Chronologiam. Opus Historiae veteri tam Graeca quam Romanae, quam & Sacra quoque necessarium.

Annales Thucydidei & Xenophontei. Praemittitur Apparatus cum Vite Thucydidis Synapsi Chronologica, ab Henrico Dodwello A. M. Dubliniensi, Oxonii E Theatro Sheldoniano. Prostant apud Benj. Tooke ad Medii Tempri Portam in vico Fleet-street dicto.

Jacobi Robaulti Physica. Latine verit, reensuit, & uberioribus jam Annotationibus, ex illustrissimi Iacobae Newtoni Philosophia maximam partem bausti, amplificavit & ornavit Samuel Clarke, A. M. Admodum Reverendo in Christo patri, Joanni Episcopo Norvicensi, a Sacris Domesticis. Accedunt etiam in hac Secunda Editione, nova aliquot Tabule ari incisa. 8vo. price 8 s. printed for J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard.